

Photos: 7th annual Pine Street ArtsFEST

1 of 14

73 See Gallery founder and block party organizer Mary Z Scotti, with Greg Pason and Daniel Cruz reorganizes the scheduled events at the 7th annual ArtsFEST on Pine Street, Saturday, June 8, 1-8 p.m.

Cynthia Walker, founder of S.O.F.I.A., hoops it up at the 7th annual ArtsFEST along Pine Street, Saturday, June 8, 1-8 p.m.

Free hot dogs, burgers and soft drinks attract a steady flow of visitors to the table by the grill.

Amy Tingle, in one of the the art tents, calls for visitors to try their hans

Tyler, Shawn and Madison Quince crowd around the drawing and coloring supplies Tingle's tent.

The Daughters of HetHaru Belly Dancing troupe get together for a photo before they show their skills to the crowd.

Bellydancer Celeste Evans performs a cane dance for the audience at the Pine Street ArtFEST.

Ivy and Greg Pason watch the belly dancers on Pine St. at the ArtFEST

Deborah McDuffie performs a classical veil dance with a flourish

Belly dancer Celeste Evans recruits dancers from the audience at the ArtFEST on Saturday.

Belly dancer Celeste Evans recruits dancers from the audience at the ArtFEST on Saturday.

An unexpected chess move by Daniel Cruz gets a reaction from Katherine Ji at the ArtFEST on Pine St. Saturday.

The Derek Campos Trio delivers some classical jazz at the ArtFEST on Pine Street.

The street chalk challenge gets another entry added to Pine Street at the ArtFEST Saturday.